

Figure 1. Estimated immigration rates vs. true values for the UNTB-HDP model fit to a neutral model simulation. Predictions are medians (solid line) from 25,000 posterior samples together with lower (2.5%) and upper (97.5%) Bayesian confidence intervals (dotted lines). The predictions from the two-stage approximation are also given (blue line).